Online Quota System

Miessa Brown
United Nations Reporting and Quota Section
Diversion Control Division

- Quota Applications Must be Submitted Online
- Benefits
  - Provides secure web-based database system
  - Verifies registration as active and current
  - Preloads your available drug codes, historical data
  - Performs calculations
  - Provides confirmation of agency receipt and status
  - Expedites process

Code of Federal Regulations Requirements for Submitting Quota Requests

- Procurement applications due by April 1
- Import applications due by April 1
- Manufacturing applications due by May 1
- Adjustments to any quota can be requested throughout the year
  - Avoiding duplicate entries is helpful
  - Can request withdrawal of erroneous entries via email
  - New requests for the same substance automatically supersede older requests
- Quantities should be expressed as:
  - Anhydrous acid, base or alkaloid
  - GRAMS, rounded to the nearest WHOLE gram

Additional questions have been added to the application

1. Will alleviate the additional back and forth between DEA and registrants which had been delaying the review process
2. Will allow DEA to better understand the time required to bring products to market
3. Better predict when the results of the quota adjudications will be available to patients in need
4. Ultimately help to prevent and alleviate shortages

- Provide YTD sales in grams base when applying for commercial quota
  - ❑ Separate domestic sales from exported quantities as applicable
- Include DEA# and application# on all correspondence
  - ❑ POC/direct phone line/extension if different than DEA registration POC
- Ensure the names and DEA numbers of your suppliers and customers are correct
- CMO's should request that their customer provide information directly to DEA or through you (if possible) regarding any other manufacturer's involved in manufacturing the same products and the allocation of quota between them.
- If requested, provide your Customer List with year to date (YTD) sales aggregated by DEA number (in excel format). The customer list should have each customer DEA registration shown ONCE in the entire document and the aggregated total sold to that DEA Number.

- Provide product development information in the following format:
  - batch purpose, unit strength (mg) x # units x # batches x conversion factor = total grams base.
  - Provide quantities for overages, stability, retains, and waste separately.
- Separate how much quota is required for commercial sale (CM) vs validation (PD)
  - Validation material can be sold once the FDA approves the product
- Too much or too little information will slow your quota review down
- If you're going to submit a large amount of information, please provide a summary page that provides a synopsis of your activity and the calculations you used to determine your quota requirements
- Do not submit a copy of this/past applications, registration certificate, past quota letters with your supporting documentation

- Relinquishment Procedure
  - Use the online quota system to submit a request for the amount you require for the year
  - When it is smaller than the amount you currently have, we know you mean to relinquish quota
  - If you want to relinquish all of your currently granted quota because you no longer need any of it, enter 0.001 g in the amount requested field. The system will not accept zero; however, we will grant you zero quota on your letter.

- Authority to Market – Enter the authority to market the product (NDA#, ANDA#, OTC Monograph, etc.)
- FDA Shortage – Check the box if this product is currently listed on FDA’s Drug Shortage List
- Days to Start Production – How many days will it take to begin production (from the time of receipt of the substance for which you are applying?)
- Days for Production – How many days will it take to perform production cycle (milling, granulation, coating, pressing, etc.)?
